

Are you a K-8 teacher interested in outdoor learning?
Would you like to attend a free environmental education pro-d workshop to enhance your teaching and network with other teachers?

Get Outside and Learn!

with Sierra Club BC

DETAILS:

Friday, May 10, 2019
9:30-12:00 (K-3 teachers) and 1:00-3:30 (4-8 teachers)
Robert Ogilvie Elementary (9907 86 St, Fort St John)

TOPICS COVERED:

- the benefits of spending time outside
- conducting a risk-benefit assessment
- building a routine to take your students outdoors
- connections to the science curriculum
- LOTS of hands-on, nature-based activities

TO REGISTER:

Contact James Davis
Education Program Manager
james@sierraclub.bc.ca
250-386-5255 ext. 245

Inspiring generations to defend nature and confront climate change, so families, communities and the natural world can prosper together.