

Exploring Online Learning Resources & Digmore

September 3, 2020
9:30 - 11am

DIVERSITY

There are many online resources available to SD60 students and staff that support students in building competencies and skills in the areas of Research, Online Safety, Digital Citizenship, ADST (Applied Design, Skills, and Technology) and Coding.

This workshop will provide you with the opportunity to explore our district website, Digmore, and discover the many tools and sites that can be accessed digitally in the classroom or remotely, such as National Geographic, World Book Student, and Follett Shelf.

You will also be able to access teacher links to other district websites and lesson ideas that are housed on Digmore, in the areas of ADST, Digital Citizenship and Coding, for example.
